Dear Jay:

We are very appreciative of Sigma Pi's ongoing support for the work of the Rape Treatment Center. Thank you for your generous contribution.

The funds raised by the student and alumni brothers of Sigma Pi at UCLA will support comprehensive, free services for sexual assault victims, including specialized medical care, forensic services, advocacy, and professional counseling; training programs for police, judges, prosecutors, and hospital personnel; a national campus rape campaign to reduce sexual violence on our country's college campuses; sexual abuse prevention programs for children and teenagers in public schools; award-winning educational films and books about rape that are distributed nationally; and special services for child victims.

We are honored that you are part of our community of support.

Sincerely,

Gail Abarbanel
Director
